N°

ANNOTATIONS

1 Popular tags and discover case studies is sticky and will remain on the screen as people scroll through the case studies on the left.

2 Only 5 case studies will be shown by default and people can click on load more to see more, with each click loading 10 more.

3 This header will only be present for non-registered users the very first time they land on the website.

4 Clicking on each of these tags leads to a page listing case studies that use that tag.

5 This banner appears as a welcome message only one time, when a user has created an account for the first time.

6 Clicking the bookmark takes people to the sign-up page if they're not already registered/ logged-in

If they are already registerd, it will become filled 🔖 and save to their library